

You are pregnant. Now what?

Knowing your options can help you decide.

Parenting

Prenatal care is important for you and your developing baby.

Adoption

Open, closed, and in-family adoption are options if you decide to continue your pregnancy, but choose not to parent.

Ending the Pregnancy

Abortion is a legal and safe procedure performed by experienced health professionals.

FOCUS ON

FOCUS ON

FOCUS ON

Choosing a clinician you trust

Finding information on birth options available in your area
(midwifery, Ob-Gyn, birth center, hospital birth, others)

Connecting to pregnancy & parenting resources in your community

Talking to your clinician about family planning & birth control options after delivery

Choosing a clinician you trust

Eating healthy foods

Taking a prenatal vitamin

Researching adoption agencies & finding one you trust

Talking to your clinician about family planning & birth control options after delivery

Finding out how far along you are in your pregnancy

Choosing a health clinic that provides abortions & scheduling an appointment

Planning for travel & other associated costs

Talking to your clinician about family planning & birth control options after you're no longer pregnant

Talk to us about any of these options.
We'll support your choice with resources and information.